MISSION

Massage Therapy is a branch of complementary health care that works to improve health and well-being through the manipulation of muscles and other soft tissues of the body.

The mission of the TCL Massage Therapy Program is to prepare graduates to succeed as professional entry-level massage therapists in a variety of settings. The Program provides a sequential curriculum integrating knowledge, skill, and awareness, allowing students to develop depth of technical knowledge to deliver individualized care to clients, and self-care strategies for career longevity in this physically rigorous profession.

The Massage Therapy Program serves the needs of the student and the larger community through high-quality career-oriented education. The combination of placement testing, developmental educational courses, and extensive financial aid based on eligibility allows Program access to a broad range of students. The educational objectives of the Program support success in the Massage and Bodywork Licensing Exam (MBLEx) and effective application of skills as students enter the workforce.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The TCL Massage Therapy Program comprises a 750 hour, three-semester (11 month), 31 credit hour curriculum. A Certificate in Massage Therapy is awarded upon graduation. The Massage Therapy Program is accredited by the Commission on Massage Therapy Accreditation (COMTA), with accreditation award renewed through April, 2023. The Massage Therapy Program is recognized by the National Certification Board for Therapeutic Massage and Bodywork.

Successful completion of the Massage Therapy Program, including coursework and supervised clinical practice, makes students eligible to take the Massage & Bodywork Licensing Examination (MBLEx), approved to meet requirements for South Carolina State Licensure, and accepted by 43 states and additional territories. The TCL Massage Therapy Program meets and exceeds all instructional criteria for the National Certification Board for Therapeutic Massage and Bodywork: At least 125 hours of instruction on the body's systems (anatomy, physiology and kinesiology), at least 200 hours of massage and bodywork assessment, theory and application instruction, at least 40 hours of pathology, at least 10 hours of business and ethics instruction (minimum 6 hours in ethics), at least 125 hours of related instruction including supervised clinical practice and practicum (professional internship).

All Program hours must be completed as in-class supervised instruction, with the exception of requirements issued by the Governor of South Carolina due to COVID-19. By state law, the instructional hour will be identified as 50 minutes. One semester credit hour will be identified as 750 minutes of classroom instruction or equivalent laboratory time plus an exam period. By state guidelines, the credit ratio of laboratory/clinical practicum/internship: lecture is 3:1, meaning three contact hours of structured lab activity equals one credit hour; one contact hour of lecture equals one credit hour. Each year, the massage therapy class size is limited to 16 participants. Instructor to student ratio in clinical supervision is a maximum of 1:8. All classes in the Massage Therapy Program take place at the TCL New River campus. Lecture classes are scheduled in standard classrooms (see individual schedule for room listing following registration), and all clinical Program activities are held in the Massage Therapy Lab, Room 221. All equipment (massage tables, massage chairs, bolsters, etc.) are supplied for use while students are enrolled, with ratio of students to equipment for all activities 2:1.

STANDARDS AND CODE OF ETHICS

The TCL Massage Therapy Program adheres strictly to the professional standards of practice and code of ethics of the American Massage Therapy Association (AMTA). These principles and rules apply equally to students and faculty of the TCL Massage Therapy Program. Any violation of professional ethical behavior by any student, faculty or staff member should be reported immediately to the Massage Therapy Program Director. Students may speak with their instructor, the Program Director, the Dean of the Division of Health Sciences or other college administrator with the expectation of confidentiality in receiving assistance, support and resolution of any ethical issue or concern. Students are required to maintain appropriate physical and interpersonal boundaries and uphold professional standards during all classroom and clinical activities, in keeping with their responsibilities to the profession, outlined in the Code of Ethics below. Prior to state licensure, students may not accept money or other gratuities for massage services.

Code of Ethics for Massage Therapists. This Code of Ethics is a summary statement of the standards of conduct that define ethical behavior for the massage therapist. Adherence to the Code is a prerequisite for admission to and continued membership in the American Massage Therapy Association (AMTA).

Principles of Ethics. The Principles of Ethics form the first part of the Code of Ethics. They are aspirational and inspirational model standards of exemplary professional conduct for all members of the association. These Principles should not be regarded as limitations or restrictions, but as goals for which members should constantly strive.

Massage therapists/practitioners shall:

1. Demonstrate commitment to provide the highest quality massage therapy/bodywork to those who seek their professional service.
2. Acknowledge the inherent worth and individuality of each person by not discriminating or behaving in any prejudicial manner with clients and/or colleagues.
3. Demonstrate professional excellence through regular self-assessment of strengths, limitations, and effectiveness by continued education and training.

4. Acknowledge the confidential nature of the professional relationship with clients and respect each client's right to privacy within the constraints of the law.
5. Project a professional image and uphold the highest standards of professionalism.
6. Accept responsibility to do no harm to the physical, mental and emotional well-being of self, clients, and associates.

Rules of Ethics. The Rules of Ethics are mandatory and direct specific standards of minimally-acceptable professional conduct for all members of the association. The Rules of Ethics are enforceable for all association members, and any members who violate this Code shall be subject to disciplinary action.

Massage therapists/practitioners shall:

1. Conduct all business and professional activities within their scope of practice and all applicable legal and regulatory requirements.
2. Refrain from engaging in any sexual conduct or sexual activities involving their clients in the course of a massage therapy session.
3. Be truthful in advertising and marketing, and refrain from misrepresenting his or her services, charges for services, credentials, training, experience, ability or results.
4. Refrain from using AMTA membership, including the AMTA name, logo or other intellectual property, or the member's position, in any way that is unauthorized, improper or misleading.
5. Refrain from engaging in any activity which would violate confidentiality commitments and/or proprietary rights of AMTA or any other person or organization.

Technical College of the Lowcountry Student Handbook

Part II: Student Code For the South Carolina Technical College System SBTCE 3-2-106.1

https://catalog.tcl.edu/content.php?catoid=8&navoid=252#Student_Code

Please refer to Catalog for full content regarding the Student Code including rights, responsibilities, disciplinary actions, and grievances. Catalog includes procedures for responding to issues arising from interactions with students and with faculty.

Purpose:

The Student Code for South Carolina Technical College System sets forth the rights and responsibilities of the individual student, identifies behaviors that are not consistent with the values of college communities, and describes the procedures that will be followed to adjudicate cases of alleged misconduct, except cases of alleged acts of sexual violence and sexual harassment. Cases of alleged acts of sexual violence and sexual harassment will be adjudicated through SBTCE procedure 3-2-106.2 or SBTCE procedure 8-5-101.1. This Code applies to behavior on college property, at college-sponsored activities and events, and to off-campus behavior that adversely affects the college and/or the college community. The Code applies to all "students."

Principles:

Technical/community college students are members of both the community and the academic community. As members of the academic community, students are subject to the obligations that accrue to them by virtue of this membership.

As members of a larger community, students are entitled to all rights and protections accorded them by the laws of that community, the enforcement of which is the responsibility of duly constituted authorities. If a student's alleged behavior simultaneously violates college regulations and the law, the college may take disciplinary action independent of that taken by legal authorities.

When it has been determined that a student violated a federal, state, or local law, college disciplinary action may be initiated only when the presence of the student on campus will disrupt the educational process of the college.

When a student's alleged violation of the law, whether occurring on campus or off campus, may adversely affect the college's pursuit of its educational objectives or activities, the college may enforce its own regulations through this Student Code.

Solutions of Problems:

The college will first seek to solve problems through internal review procedures. When necessary, off-campus law enforcement and judicial authorities may be involved.

In situations where South Carolina Technical/Community Colleges have shared Programs, the Chief Student Services Officer where the alleged violation of the Student Code for the South Carolina Technical College System occurred will handle the charges. A change of venue to the other college may be granted, based on the nature of the offense, provided it is agreed to by the Chief Student Services Officers of both colleges. Any sanctions imposed will apply across both colleges.

In situations where a student is dually enrolled in two or more South Carolina Technical/Community Colleges and is charged with a violation of the Student Code for the South Carolina Technical College System, the Chief Student Services Officer of the college where the alleged infraction occurred will handle the charges and the sanctions may apply at each college in which the student is enrolled.

5. Engaging in any activity that disrupts the educational process of the college, interferes with the rights of others, or adversely interferes with other normal functions and services.

The Student Grievance Procedure for The South Carolina Technical College System SBTCE 3-2-106

Purpose

The purpose of the student grievance procedure is to provide a system to channel and resolve student complaints against a college employee concerning decisions made or actions taken. A decision or action can be grieved only if it involves a misapplication of a college's policies, procedures, or regulations, or a state or federal law. This procedure may not be used in the following instances: (1) to grieve a claim against a college employee for any matter unrelated to the employee's role or position at the college; (2) for complaints or appeals of grades awarded in a class or for an assignment, unless the complaint is based upon alleged discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, gender, veteran status, pregnancy, childbirth, other categories protected by applicable law or on the basis of alleged sexual harassment/violence; or (3) to grieve a decision for which other grievance or appeal procedures exist (e.g., appeal of a disciplinary case, a residency appeal, a financial aid appeal, FERPA grievances, transfer credit evaluations).

The student filing the grievance must meet the definition of a "student" at the time of the decision or action being grieved and must be the victim of the alleged mistreatment. A grievance cannot be filed on behalf of another person.

This time limit may be extended by the President or his/her designee, if the student requests an extension within the fifteen (15) instructional day period.

Before initiating the Student Grievance process, a student may go to the college employee who originated the alleged problem and attempt to resolve the matter informally. In instances alleging discrimination or harassment, including sexual harassment and violence, the student is not required to initially try to resolve the matter with the person alleged to have committed the violation under this policy. Where applicable, if the student is not satisfied with the outcome of this meeting or if the student prefers to ignore this step, then the student may file a written complaint and initiate the grievance process. This written complaint should describe the decision or action that is being grieved, the date of the decision or action, and the college employee(s) involved in the decision or action.

Written complaints about alleged discrimination or harassment on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, gender, veteran status, pregnancy, childbirth, other categories protected by applicable law and written complaints about alleged sexual harassment or violence shall be submitted to the employee(s) designated in the college's Statement of Nondiscrimination to coordinate Section 504, Title II, and Title IX compliance.

Requirements for training and standards of practice in other jurisdictions may vary.

NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

The Technical College of the Lowcountry Massage Therapy Program is committed to a policy of equal opportunity for all qualified applicants for admissions or employment without regard to race, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, age, religion, marital status, veteran status, disability, or political affiliation or belief.

FINANCIAL AID

Eligibility for financial aid is established by completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) through the link on the Financial Aid webpage of the TCL website www.tcl.edu. Federal, State, and private Foundation sources of assistance are available as described in the TCL Catalog.

By definition, Federal and State scholarships and grants are funds applied toward the educational costs of students who meet eligibility criteria and remain in good academic standing, which are not repaid by the student. Federally subsidized, unsubsidized, or private loans are obtained by the student or parents of dependent students, and must be repaid, subject to specific terms of repayment, including interest fees.

IMPORTANT: All students requesting funding through student loans are required to complete an annual Financial Literacy workshop. Contact Financial Aid or check the website for workshop dates.

MASSAGE THERAPY PROGRAM EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

The curriculum content is designed to build knowledge, skill, and awareness in the student therapist:

- Perform safe and effective massage therapy application
- Demonstrate healthy body mechanics and self-care
- Employ professional ethics and laws specific to the practice of massage therapy
- Apply knowledge of human structure, function, and pathology
- Provide massage therapy services to the public in clinical courses
- Document clinical activities using proper medical terminology
- Develop basic business planning and management skills
- Integrate knowledge and skills needed to pass Massage and Bodywork Licensing Examination

CPR CERTIFICATION

Massage therapy students must have a current Adult Basic CPR certificate prior to beginning clinical courses. This certification must be kept current according to the expiration date of the card and maintained throughout the Program. It is the student's responsibility to complete CPR certification. Students will not be permitted in the clinical area without current certification.

CONTINUING EDUCATION FOR INSTRUCTORS

All Massage Therapy instructors must participate in continuing education in technical and instructional skills. This requirement may be satisfied with in-service or outside Programs. Documentation must be provided.

GRADED ELEMENT MAKE-UP POLICY

Students in this science- and skills-based Program are expected to attend all classes. Students who miss more than 10% of classes are subject to administrative withdrawal from the class. All assignments must be completed or the student will receive an "I" (Incomplete) in the class. Students are expected to turn in all assignments by the designated date. Students who are not able to be present for a lab evaluation or test MUST contact the instructor in advance to request an opportunity to reschedule or "make-up" the evaluation or test. "No-call/no-show" for an evaluation or an exam will result in a grade of "0." There are no "make-up" activities equivalent to hours in the Program. (For example, a student may not write a paper to "make-up" hours in a specific course.)

DRAPING PROCEDURES

Professional standards of draping are required and maintained at all times during the curriculum. Draping procedures are introduced and practiced in MTH 121 Principles of Massage I during Fall Semester, and required during all courses involving massage application.

Any student who does not observe appropriate draping technique and respect for physical and interpersonal boundaries will be immediately removed from the clinical activity. Behavior will be documented by the instructor, and discussed in private with student for appropriate resolution, including potential dismissal from the course and the Program. In cases where the situation is resolved and the student is allowed to return to clinical activities, any deliberate or repeated inappropriate behavior following corrective instruction will result in dismissal from the Program.

HYGIENE

Since the practice of massage therapy involves physical contact with fellow students during massage application courses and members of the public during clinical sessions, students are required to maintain professional standards of hygiene and grooming at all times. Daily showering/bathing, use of unscented deodorant, clean clothing, well-groomed haircut, and conservatively trimmed hair including mustache and beard, are required of all students at all times.

Smoking is discouraged while enrolled in the Program, and if a student smokes, care must be taken to remove odors from linens, clothing, skin and hair. Because some students and clients may be sensitive to scent, grooming products used should be unscented, and colognes and perfumes should not be used. Chewing gum is not allowed, but breath mints are allowed and may be recommended due to close proximity of work with fellow students and clients. Nails must be trimmed short and filed.

Best practices of clinical hygiene and universal precautions including proper hand-washing, handling of linens, and cleaning of equipment will be employed during all class and clinical activities.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT (See TCL student handbook and course syllabi)

Health care professionals hold the public trust. Academic misconduct by health science students calls that trust into question and academic integrity is expected. Academic misconduct may result in withdrawal for related health science courses. Also, depending on the severity of the student's academic misconduct, the student will not only be withdrawn from the Program, but will not be allowed for re-entry and/or reapplication to all Health Science Programs.

Additionally, a student may be required to submit to drug testing at the request of the clinical facility, Dean of Health Sciences, or Massage Therapy Program Director. The cost for the drug testing will be the student's responsibility.

Massage Therapy academic courses take place in lecture classrooms as designated on the individual student schedule. Massage application classes take place in the dedicated Massage Therapy Lab, Room 221. The Massage Therapy Program Director's office is adjacent to the lab. All lecture classrooms are equipped with modern audiovisual equipment, and selected courses (MTH 120 Introduction to Massage, Fall Semester, and MTH 124 Massage Business Application, Summer Semester) are scheduled in computer equipped classrooms (one PC per student) to enhance learning with online resources and enable special lessons (research literacy, resume preparation, etc.).

The Massage Therapy lab is dedicated to Program activities and no other Programs or courses are scheduled in that space. Massage tables are provided to allow two students to every workstation, with additional individual space provided for storage of student supplies and belongings. Heavy opaque curtains partition workstations for privacy in undressing and dressing.

ACCREDITATION

The Massage Therapy program is accredited by the Commission for Massage Therapy Accreditation awarded through April, 2030. The COMTA office may be reached by phone 202-888-6790, email info@comta.org or by mail at 900 Commonwealth Place Suite 200-331. COMTA provides oversight and a grievance process for accredited programs and schools. Students, faculty and the public may contact COMTA at any time with questions regarding requirements for accreditation, or for assistance that is not available at the college level.

PREGNANCY DECLARATION for FEMALE STUDENTS ENROLLED in MASSAGE THERAPY PROGRAM

If, during the course of her education, a student becomes pregnant, she may voluntarily choose to declare her pregnancy to the Program Director in writing. Revealing her pregnancy is not a requirement and is the decision of the student. The student may choose not to declare her pregnancy, in which case, the student will be treated as though she is not pregnant.

Once a pregnancy is declared, the student also has the right to undeclare the pregnancy at any time but this should also be completed in writing. This is in accordance with federal and state law, and applies to students in all Division of Health Sciences Programs at the Technical College of the Lowcountry.

If the student voluntarily declares pregnancy, she must submit a formal statement in writing to the Program Director. If a pregnancy is declared, the Program faculty will advise the student of the following options:

- A. The student may continue both the academic and clinical components of the Program without modifications.
- B. The student may continue academic course work only. This option is at the discretion of the faculty and will depend on the placement of the student within the Program. Students who choose this option and have the approval of the Program Director will make up all clinical education prior to graduation and receive their diplomas. The maximum leave of absence within a twelve (12) month period is sixty (60) days.
- C. The student may choose to leave the Program with option for re-entry at a time to be determined by the Program Director in consultation with the Program faculty and in compliance with policy of the Division of Health Sciences. The student may be required to begin the Program again, depending on the student's placement within the Program.

Students seeking to re-enter the Program must follow the "Conditions for Re-entry to Health Sciences Programs" as stated in the Division of Health Sciences Handbook. Clinical remediation may be required if the absence has been considered substantial and/or if clinical skills need to be further enhanced.
