The Technical College of the Lowcountry operates on an open admission policy as required by the 1976 Code of Laws of South Carolina, as amended. Consistent with the statutory requirement, the College makes every effort to minimize geographic, financial, and scholastic barriers to the postsecondary programs and services offered through Technical College of the Lowcountry. As such, the College admits all qualified individuals who meet appropriate academic age and verified legal presence requirements.

The Technical College of the Lowcountry maintains open admission to fulfill the educational mission of the College and to promote achievement of individuals with varied potential. Open admission supports the College's commitment to assess student potential and provide developmental education or appropriate referral, as necessary.
